

1 2010 THE JOHN K. GUTIERREZ MEMORIAL FIREPLACE
 2010 Clipper Park Road, Baltimore
 On February 25, 2010, our community prematurely lost John K. Gutierrez, one of Baltimore's great creative talents--a visionary and beloved community leader. The community that he was so connected with and helped foster raised funds to build a memorial fireplace in his honor; which was dedicated on the first anniversary of his death, February 25, 2011. Family and friends agreed to gather and encourage others to walk the next year in Druid Hill Park to honor and celebrate John's life and to use raised funds to further his legacy in the arts.

The Gutierrez Memorial Fund was born!

2 2011 THE BENCH THAT GIVES APPRENTICESHIP INGOMA Foundation
 2010 Clipper Park Road, Baltimore
 An apprentice program to teach local community citizens beginning craft skills and business acumen. The students graduated and became employed with these skills, and created a bench that could be used to fund additional artisan training. IngomaFoundation@gmail.com

3 2012 TREE OF LIFE MOSAIC ARTblocks
 2235 N. Fulton St., Baltimore
 The Legacy Grant was used to install a colorful tree trunk mosaic in Westside Elementary School created by students, their families and the Mondawmin community as a reflection of their hopes and dreams. The goal was to assist ARTblocks in transforming harsh neighborhoods into vibrant places reflecting their unique character and spirit. www.ArtBlocks.org

4 2013 CHILDREN'S UMBRELLA SCULPTURE Access Art
 2601 Tolley St., Baltimore
 The Legacy Grant was used to design and construct a unique Children's Umbrella sculpture that was built using the youths' photography and design skills, creating the "Lace of Allies" cut in metal to form the umbrella. The work was installed as the centerpiece to the outdoor learning space at Morrell Park Elementary Middle school. www.AccessArtMD.org

5 2013 SNTL PUBLIC WORKSHOP Station North Tool Library
 417 E Oliver St., Baltimore
 The Legacy Grant was used to build a community-accessible workshop, with equipment, tooling, and facility improvements. This project created the Open Shop, with classes in Planter Box Design and Construction, Chef's Knife Making, Wooden Hula Hoops and more. www.StationNorthToolLibrary.org

6 2014 29th STREET COMMUNITY CENTER MURALS Wide Angle Youth Media
 300 E. 29th St., Baltimore
 The Legacy Grant was used to design and install two large permanent photo-based murals in the 29th Street Community Center and a painted mural on the Barclay Elementary/Middle School exterior utilizing the talents of 30 5th-8th graders trained in photography and mural design. www.WideAngleYouthMedia.org

7 2015 MOSAIC ADDRESS SIGNS & FLOWER POTS Jubilee Arts
 2235 N. Fulton St., Baltimore
 The Legacy Grant funded a full year Art & Business program through Jubilee Arts. Fourteen youth ages 14- 19 participated to create, donate and install mosaic address signs and flower pots on the 1500 block of Presstman Street in the Sandtown neighborhood as visible symbols of their community's livability and revitalization. www.Arts.JubileeArts.org

8 2016 CAREY STREET POCKET PARK Arts + Parks
 1000 Block of N. Carey St., Baltimore
 By utilizing the talents of muralist Justin Nethercut and landscape designer Elise Victoria, a holistic community space was created in an abandoned empty lot on N. Carey Street. The project includes an illustrated tribute to community members on a large scale mural and a beautiful, sustainable park complete with native, drought resistant plants. www.ArtsAndParks.org

9 2017 "MY FAVORITE THINGS" WALL TAPESTRY Maria-Theresa Fernandes
 Weinberg Place Senior Living - 2500 W. Belvedere Ave., Baltimore
 The artist used the Legacy Grant to teach art classes to seniors at the Weinberg Place. Through the program, the residents created mixed-media stitched artworks that represent stories of their lives, favorite places, and other recollections. The unique pieces were quilted to a hanging tapestry currently exhibited in the entry lobby of the residence hall. www.MariaTheresaFernandes.co.uk

GUTI SPOTS QUICK GUIDE

10 2017 ROCKROSE PARK GATEWAY Itineris
 2020 Rockrose Ave., Baltimore
 Itineris, in collaboration with Baltimore artist Lania D'Agostino, designed and constructed a new gateway pergola at the Hooper & Rockrose Park to help bridge the gap between individuals with autism spectrum disorder (Itineris clients) and the community. The gateway includes signage and mosaics that were created through the Drew Putzel Creative Arts Program. www.ItinerisBaltimore.org

11 2018 AMAZING GRACE BREEZEWAY Wande Kotun
 Weinberg Place Senior Living - 2500 W. Belvedere Ave., Baltimore
 Working with members of the community, Wande Kotun guided the transformation of a breezeway between two buildings in East Baltimore that leads to a wonderful community garden at the back of the Amazing Grace church. The breezeway is an inspirational walkway with an incredible mosaic tilework mural that provides a gathering place for the children of the after-school programs, gardeners, and parishioners that attend the programs offered by the church. www.ResoluteRose.com

12 2018 BOYS & GIRLS CLUB DECORATIVE WINDOWS Nicole Fall
 Boys & Girls Club of Metropolitan Baltimore at Brooklyn O'Malley, 3560 3rd St., Baltimore
 The Brookly O'Malley location of the Boys & Girls Clubs had gone through a significant renovation in 2017. What remained to be completed after the initial funding was exhausted included new window-protection artwork features. Nicole Fall worked with the kids at BGCMB to design playful metalwork grilles that were installed on the building facade. www.NicoleFallSculpture.com

13 2019 SCULPTURAL BENCHES Greenmount Tile
 Hunters Street Lot, Greenmount West, Baltimore
 Through community design sessions and claywork instruction classes, the Greenmount Tile artisan Dominique Hellgath is producing a mosaic artwork bench seating that will be placed in a neighborhood park that is used by residents. The form is an ergonomic shape, rounded and smooth, and will be an inviting seating place for park visitors. www.GreenmountTile.com

14 2020 B&O STREET ART PROJECT B&O Railroad Museum
 901 W. Pratt Street, Baltimore
 Inspired by the uniquely intertwined history of railroad culture and graffiti art, the B&O Railroad Museum completed a Street Art Competition in partnership with Creative Alliance to have local artists create a mural on a railroad car housed at the B&O Museum. The installation is a multidisciplinary approach to appreciating street art and understanding its relationship with rail history and culture. www.BORail.com

15 2020 GHOST RIVERS Bruce Willen
 Remington Neighborhood, Baltimore
 Unearthing the lost rivers that run beneath our streets, graphic artist Bruce Willen is commemorating these natural streams by producing horizontal street graphics that tell the story of where they used to run. With select locations in the Remington neighborhood, these graphics will be traffic-enduring and remind pedestrians of the once-prominent streams. www.BruceWillen.com

16 2020 TOTEMIC SCULPTURE Baltimore Clayworks
 CASA of Maryland, 2706 Pulaski Hwy., Baltimore
 Working with CASA of Maryland, Baltimore Clayworks commissioned renowned sculptor George Rodriguez to teach ceramic workshops & engage CASA members in the creation of a totemic sculpture that serves as a guardian figure protecting their diverse East Baltimore neighborhood. www.BaltimoreClayworks.com

17 2021 BAUER BUILDING OUTDOOR MURAL Living Classrooms Foundation
 1404 Caroline Street, Baltimore
 This project is the finishing touch for a new workforce development program building across from the Living Classrooms HQ location in Fells Point. Working with Art with a Heart, the design of a mural representing a young Frederick Douglas will be installed on an exterior wall on Thames Street which will be highly visible and prominent. www.LivingClassrooms.org